Vol. 1, No. 4 of the Briscoe County (Texas) Herald comes to our exchange table this week as a welcome visitor. It is edited by J. M. Hughes, the jolly old-timer who used to be the chief mogul of the Kenna Record office. Jim is an all-right newspaper man and an all-round good fellow, and if he don't make the Herald win out it will be because he is not in a newspaper town, and we do not believe that can be said of Silverton.

NOTHING ALARMING ABOUT THE COMET.

We did not suppose that any of our readers were seriously alarmed concerning the near approach of the comet. It has made some very near approaches before without any notable effect upon the inhabitants of the earth other than to set some of the ungodly to praying for absolution from their sins, and making a lot of the world's hypocrites wish they had been as good as they had advertised themselves. But from interviews we have recently had, we learn that some of our people who have hearkened to the voices of calamity prophets have become unduly alarmed over the prospect of having to "Shoot the Shoots" through the comet's tail. It is predicted that on or about the 18th., 19th. or 20th. of May the comet will get so near the earth that its tail will swish around us—and something will happen, the prophets not stating specifically what that sometimes will do.

As a matter of fact, according to the mathematical calculations of the trained comet dispatchers, the nearest approach of Halley's comet makes to our New Mexico Homesteads is on the 20th of May, which will be Friday of next week.
On that date it will be only about thirteen million miles distant. It seems to us that the tip of its tail (the only part supposed to reach us) will be too far from its head to do much business. If it didn't begin switching its caudal appendage pretty soon after it started this way, which was about 37 1-2 years ago, it couldn't get action on this end of it in time to make any disturbance.

In side of the next few days the comet will make its appearance in the western horizon and will be plainly visible for an hour or two after sundown, very nearly the time in the evening and the place the comet of a month or so ago appeared, and on the 18th or 19th the big show is to come off, when we are supposed to pass through the comet's tail.
As the moon however is nearly full at that time it is unlikely we will see much of the flashlight performance if it does occur.

The Stark Year Book for 1910 is ready to mail. It will be sent to any person interested in fruit-growing on receipt of 7 cents to cover postage. The Stark Year Book for 1910 represents an entirely new idea in nurserymen's literature—it is a work of art as well as a catalogue of Stark Nursery products. Within its covers are 32 full-page illustrations of fruits and flowers, representing 175 varieties, done in four colors, and exactly reproducing nature. 84 pages are devoted to descriptions, prices, and records.

Stark Delicious, the apple that has revolutionized orchard planting and established a new standard of apple values (selling at $10.00 per bushel box this year); Stark King David, another apple of wondrous quality and merit; Stark King Philip, a hardy black grape of California grape quality, and dozens of the very best things in the horticultural world are fully described, illustrated, and priced.
To any one planting one tree or many, of fruits or ornamental, this book is of inestimable value—a horticultural text-book—a guide to proper selection.
Stark trees have stood the supreme test of actual planting for 85 years—they are the yard-stick by which all other nursery products are measured—they are the first choice of this country's most successful orchardists. The success of the orchard is dependent on the kind and quality of tree planted. Stark varieties are the best of the best. Our record of 85 years of successful selling is a positive guarantee of tree quality.

Before you decide to buy, send 7 cents for the Stark Year Book—do it today before the edition is exhausted.

We do not believe anyone need be fearful or apprehensive of danger, unless it be book agents, delinquent subscribers or scandal mongers. If you are a book agent you have one week yet in which to close out your stock; if a delinquent subscriber, you still have a few days in which to square yourself; but if you are a scandal monger your only show is to close up your talk shop and go out of business forever, for if you ever talk about your neighbor again, even in the years to come, that comet's tail will come back and get you, sure pop.

Wilson Orr has been seriously sick for the past week, but is reported to be improving. He will not probably be about for some time, but is not thought to be in danger.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

Our body convened on Monday the 2nd of May and held daily sessions on the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th, and 11th. During this time, we have investigated thirty eight cases and out of this number we have returned twenty nine "true bills" and nine "no bills." Acting under the instructions of the Court, our body has inspected the Sheriff's office and temporary jail; the County Clerks and County Treasurer's offices and wish to report that we find all books and records kept in a careful and thoroughly systematic manner. We have no recommendations to make, excepting that some fire protection should be provided for at the temporary jail.

We wish to thank the District Attorney for his assistance and also the Sheriff's office for their promptness in having witnesses on hand.
Respectfully submitted, (Signed) C. A. BAKER, Foreman.

POLITENESS.

In my youth I knew a lad who was most exceedingly smart, and his flippant way of talking often broke the hearer's heart. He was working for a grocer in a little corner store, taking down the wooden shutters, sweeping up the greasy floor, and he always answered pertly, and he had a sassy eye, and the people often ask him if he wouldn't kindly die. On the festive years skeddaddled, and the children of that day, now are bent beneath life's burdens, and their hair is turning gray; and the flippant one is toiling in the same old country store, taking down the ancient shutters, sweeping up the greasy floor. In the same old sleepy village live a lad so polite, that to hear him answer questions was a genuine delight; he was working in a foundry where they dealt in eggs and cheese, and the work was hard and tiresome, but he always tried to please. And to day he's boss of thousands, and his salary's sky high, and his manners just as pleasant, as it was in days gone by. It's an idle, trifling story, and you doubtless think it flat; but its moral might be pasted with some profit in your hat.—Walt Mason.

Not Proper Comparison.
The old ducky had driven his fare to the hotel and was now demanding a dollar for his service. "What!" protested the passenger, "a dollar for that distance? Why, it isn't half a mile as the crow flies." "Dat's true boss," returned Sambo, with an appealing smile, "but y' see, suh, dat old crow he ain't got free wives an' ten chilluns to support not to mention de keep foh de hose."
